

Absolutely! Here's a sample general Power of Attorney in English, along with some important notes:

POWER OF ATTORNEY

I, [Your Full Name], residing at [Your Address], hereby appoint [Agent's Full Name], residing at [Agent's Address], as my attorney-in-fact (hereinafter referred to as "Agent") to act on my behalf in the following matters:

1. Financial Matters:

- Manage bank accounts, including depositing and withdrawing funds.
- Pay bills and taxes.
- Buy, sell, or manage real estate.
- Invest funds.
- File insurance claims.

2. Legal Matters:

- Sign contracts and legal documents.
- Represent me in court or other legal proceedings.
- Hire and fire attorneys.

3. Healthcare Matters:

- Make healthcare decisions on my behalf if I become incapacitated.
- Access my medical records.

4. Other Matters:

- [Specify any other powers you wish to grant, e.g., managing a business, voting in elections, etc.]

Duration:

This Power of Attorney shall remain in effect until [Specify date or event, e.g., "revoked in writing by me" or "my death"].

Signature and Date:

[Your Signature]

[Date]

Witnesses:

[Witness 1 Signature]

[Witness 1 Printed Name]

[Witness 2 Signature]

[Witness 2 Printed Name]

Agent Acceptance:

I, [Agent's Full Name], accept the appointment as attorney-in-fact under this Power of Attorney.

[Agent's Signature]

[Date]

Notary Public Acknowledgment:

[Notary Public's Seal and Signature]

[Date]

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- Customization: This is a general template. Tailor it to your specific needs and jurisdiction.
- Legal Counsel: It's highly recommended to consult an attorney to ensure the Power of Attorney is valid and meets your requirements.
- State Laws: Power of Attorney laws vary by state. Make sure your document complies with the laws of your state.
- Notarization: In many cases, a Power of Attorney needs to be notarized to be valid.
- Revocation: You can revoke a Power of Attorney at any time, usually by providing written notice to your agent.

Let me know if you'd like a more specific type of Power of Attorney (e.g., healthcare, financial, or durable).